E. P. BRYAN, Agent.

This the Seventh Internal Revenue District was consolidated on Tuesday with the old Ninth District.

Mr. A. H. McClure is remodeling and modernizing the old Crittenden property recently purchased by him.

Mr. Lee Harris, formerly of this city, will be married on the second of September to a young lady in Philadelphia.

Mr. John Lewis Dailey, who was badly beaten up in a fight at a picnic near Peak's Mill Saturday, died of his injuries Wednesday.

Owing to a leak in Dam No. 1, the water has been drawn off from the pool in order to repair it and the boats have stopped running for a few days in consequence.

Mr. Waller W. Hawkins, formerly of this county, but now of Henry, and Mrs. Emma Penn, widow of Chas. Penn, of this county, were married in Louisville Saturday afternoon.

Col. E. Polk Johnson, of Louisville, who has been Assistant Clerk of the House of Representatives, for several sessions, has announced himself a candidate for Chief Clerk.

One of the largest watermelons we have seen this season was at the fruit stand of Mr. J. M. Banta Thursday. It was two feet long, one foot through, and weighed 48 pounds. It was raised in Virginia.

Mrs. S. J. Bohannon has had a new pavement laid in front of her property, near the north end of the St. Clair street bridge. If the city would now follow her example and have a good walk laid from her property to the bridge South Siders will be happy.

The Railroad Company will begin Monday to tear up the floor of the Railroad bridge for the purpose of putting down a new one, and travel across it will be suspended for a week or two. Since the lumber dealers have been required to load cars on the switch at the west end of the bridge the hauling across the bridge has been greatly increased, and the floor has to be renewed much oftener than formerly.

During the game of base ball Thursday afternoon, between the Capital City and Lexington Clubs, little Dudley Shanks, of Louisville, grandson of Mrs. Mary Heffner, was struck in the mouth by a foul ball, knocked by one of the Lexington players, which broke out one of his teeth and bruised his lips very badly. Dr. J. C. Bush, who was on the grounds, replaced the tooth and dressed the wound and the little fellow is getting along all right.

The election passed off Monday very quietly, and although the race was a warm one, not a single fight occurred at any point in the county. The following is the official vote of the county:

- For Governor—Knott, 1,751; Morrow, 987.
- For Lieutenant Governor—Hindman, 1,728; Fry, 982.
- For Attorney General—Hardin, 1,741; Garrigus, 972.
- For Auditor—Hewitt, 1,740; Hawthorne, 871.
- For Treasurer—Tate, 1,751; Farley, 965.
- For Superintendent of Public Instruction—Pickett, 1,739; Pinkerton, 972.
- For Register of the Land Office—Cecil, 1,741; Asbury, 864.
- For Representative—Julian, 1,538; Brawner, 1,279.
- For Sheriff—Collins, 1,800; Church, 974.
- For Constitutional Convention, 232.

The Capital City Base Ball Club will play the Pleasureville Club at Pleasureville this afternoon.

Notice.

Those persons who have been in the habit of removing the seats from Bald Knob School-house for the purpose of using them at picnics are hereby notified that they will have to make other arrangements, as we cannot allow the furniture of the school to be used for that purpose.

Circus Royal.—A magnificent street parade.—Splendid Horses—Fine Animals—A Grand Ring Exhibition.—In fact Everything to make a First-Class Show.

The Grand Circus Royal and English Menagerie arrived in this city early this morning, and the small boys were there in full force to give it a proper welcome. Although the crowd of people in the city was not as large as on some circus days, yet the sidewalks along the line of the parade were occupied by many thousands of people, and the exhibition this afternoon was largely attended. The parade was a good one, and considering the adverse circumstances with which they have lately been contending, having had sixteen consecutive rainy days, the animals and people presented a very creditable appearance. The Royal has a fine looking lot of horses as any circus that has visited this city. Their collection of wild animals is extensive, and includes many that are rarely seen in this country. The ring exhibition is a very superior one, many of the features being entirely new to circus goers. If you don't attend the exhibition to-night you will miss one of the best circuses of the season.—Evening Republican, Meadville, Pa.

FRANKFORT, KY., July 30th, 1883.

At a regular meeting of Capital Lodge, No. 6, I. O. O. F., the Noble Grand, brother Albert Chilson, appointed a committee consisting of Brothers Hutchison, Lewis and Dehoney to draft resolutions of condolence with the family and friends of Brother H. K. Strange, who departed this life July 14th, 1883.

Brother Strange was born Sept., 23d, 1825, and died July 14th, 1883. Brother Strange was well and favorably known in this community, where he filled different positions in the State and city, and the best proof that he always discharged his duty, he died when in the performance of said duty.

Brother Strange was pure in every thought; honest in every impulse; just in every act, and we say of him he was a pure Odd Fellow; a sincere Christian, and an honest man; therefore

Resolved, That Capital Lodge mourns the loss of Brother Strange as one ever faithful to all his obligations as an Odd Fellow, and as a citizen. He was a devoted and loving husband, a kind and affectionate father, and an honest man.

Resolved, That this Lodge tenders to his bereaved wife and orphaned children their heartfelt sympathy, and while his body is buried beneath the sod of the vale we will hold a vivid recollection of all his virtues as becomes the true philanthropy of this great brotherhood.

THOMAS J. HUTCHISON,
J. M. LEWIS,
W. S. DEHONEY.
